IT'S NOW ON TRIAL

Fred Leonard's Appeal Before the Kent Circuit Court.

HIS BROTHER GIVES EVIDENCE

Tending to Show Fred's Incompetency to Handle His Business Affairs-probate court's order adjudging him mane, etc. It opened with the arguments on Attorney Allen's motion to set saide the order by which the probate court decided Fred H. Leonard as mentally incompetent, and contesting the legality of the order of the proing the legality of the order of the pro-bate court in appointing the Michigan Trust company as guardian of Fred H. Leonard. The attorneys for the appel-Justice Westfail, was filed in the cirlant claim that the appointment was cuit court yesterday. void, Judge Perkins being a stockholdmotion was denied by Judge Adsit, who ruled that he did not deem it good practice to make an order in the matter without first having a trial of the merits of the case.

In the afternoon the trial was com-menced, considerable time being spent in selecting a jury.

Frank Leonard was the first witness

Frank Leonard was the first witness sworn for the petitioners. He testified that up to 1888 Fred had been a careful business man and had filled every position in the Leonards' business, and was considered the best man in the store. That he had been intrusted with much of the buying of goods for the house.

About 1887 Fred had a stroke of paralysis and thereafter his entire demeanor changed. He became a spend-thrift and neglected his business. He then spend his time in driving, often spending $40 a month in livery bills alone. Then Fred traveled all over the east, making New York City his headquarters. Fart of the time, the witness testified, Fred traveled alone, and part of the time he was accompanied by Fred Hodges, who had been hired to accompany and look after him. Fred had stated before leaving that he was going to New York, Philadelphis and other places to consult the best doctors regarding his condition. On this trip they visited, besides New York and Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Quebec, Montreal, Memphis, Louisville, Chicago, Milwaukee and Hot Quebec, Montreal, Memphis, Louisville, Chicago, Milwaukee and Hot Springs. But his condition was not bettered. The expenses of this trip was paid by the firm of Leonard's Sons & Co., but was charged to Fred's account. In 1888 he made his headquarters in Chicago, making frequent fly-ing visits home. The manis for riding still stayed with him, but he would

Ris Alleged Extravagance. During the year '88 Fred would draw drafts on the bouse amounting to $500 to $500 a month. After that time agents were appointed in New York, Chicago, Detroit and other places, who were instructed to advance him $35 a week, but the amount was all the same that t week, but the amount was always overdrawn. After that Fred accompanied Frank Leonard and his wife to Baden Baden, Germany, where Fred's allow-ance was cut to 75 cents a day, and his Berlin agents were instructed to pay his board. He remained there three months, being unable to get away. The case was adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, when Frank Leonard will be on the stand again. The case is beginning to attract atten-tion and a large crowd was present. Fred Leonard was accompanied by his

"CRESS" DID NOT SERVE.

How a Reporter Escaped Serving On United States Jury.

"Mr. Cresswell, take a seat in the jury box," was the command of Court court yesterday morning as "Cress" of the Eagle sat humbly in the court room waiting to get an item. Mr. Dishman's attention was momentarily directed to another part of the room and "Cress," not wishing to be caught on a jury, slipped out of the door, jumped astride the bannister and shot down to the street door before Mr. Dishman noticed that he had not obeyed him. As soon as the officer noticed that "Cress" had skipped he made a tour of the building in search of his man but could not find him. On reporting the matter to the court the judge decided that Mr. Cresswell must have misundersteed the order, as he believed that no such innocent reporter would wifnilly disobey the order of a Causted States officer. Officer Dishman of the United States would wilfully disobey the order of a D. J. McCarthy's Probation.

"Royal Ruby" Port Wine.

If you are reduced in vitality or strength by illness or any other cause, we recommend the use of this old Port wine, the very blood of the grape. A grand tonic for nursing mothers and those reduced by wasting diseases. It creates strength; improves the appetite. Nature's own remedy, much preferable to drugs, guaranteed absolutely pure and of age. Young wine ordinarily sold is not fit to use. Insist on having this standard brand; it costs no more. It in quart bottles; pints, 60 cents. Royal Wine Co., Chicago. For sale by White & White and Thum Bros. & Schmidt, leading druggists. Other News of the Courts.

W. S. Stevens, clerk of police court, sat with his feet on his desk yesterday and cursed it for a blue Monday. Just three unfortunate boozers had appeared at the morning session and no business was likely to be on call for the afternoon session. Two of the morning attendants were sent to jail and the other paid a fine.
